

NEWS ADVISORY

June 18, 2008

Contact: Sangita Nayak

9to5 Milwaukee Organizer

414-274-0920

9to5 Milwaukee Delivers Signatures from Tens of Thousands of Milwaukeeans for Right to Paid Sick Time

First Time in Over a Decade, Signatures to Put Binding Resolution on Milwaukee Ballot

WHAT:

9to5 Milwaukee and a large Milwaukee coalition, including faith, labor, educational and health groups, will deliver tens of thousands signatures to put paid sick days on the ballot. The delivery will be made to the Milwaukee City Clerk Office, and will complete the first step in a process for a ballot initiative. The press event will include copies of the ordinance as well as knowledgeable speakers from various aspects of our community.

WHO:

9to5, National Association of Working Women
Staff from Rep. Gwen Moore's Office (invited)
MPS Principal Rita Tenorio
Dennis Oulahan, MTEA
Sheila Cochran, AFL-CIO (invited)
Richard Riley, ATU President
Elaine Maly, Women's Fund

WHERE:

City Hall Rotunda

WHEN:

12:00 noon on Monday, June 23.

VISUAL:

Boxes of tens of thousands of signatures, banners, kids